NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ILLINOIS
EASTERN DIVISION

BARBARA HOLLAUS,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 1:25-cv-04476

THE PARTNERSHIPS AND UNINCORPORATED
ASSOCIATIONS IDENTIFIED ON SCHEDULE “A”,

Defendants.

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, BARBARA HOLLAUS (“Hollaus” or “Plaintiff”), by Plaintiff’s undersigned counsel, hereby complains of the Partnerships and Unincorporated Associations identified on Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, “Defendants”), and for Plaintiff’s Complaint hereby alleges as follows:

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. § 101, et seq., 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a)–(b), and 28 U.S.C. § 1331.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, and this Court may properly exercise personal jurisdiction over Defendants since each of the Defendants directly targets consumers in the United States, including Illinois, through at least the fully interactive commercial internet stores operating under the Defendant aliases and/or the online marketplace accounts identified in Schedule A attached hereto (collectively, the “Defendant Internet Stores”). Specifically, Defendants are reaching out to do business with Illinois residents by operating one or more commercial, interactive internet stores through which Illinois residents can purchase products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's copyrighted works. Each of the Defendants has targeted Illinois residents by operating online stores that offer shipping to the United States, including Illinois, accept payment in U.S. dollars, and, on information and belief, have sold products bearing infringing versions of Plaintiff's federally registered copyrighted works to residents of Illinois. Each of the Defendants is committing tortious acts in Illinois, is engaging in interstate commerce, and has wrongfully caused Plaintiff substantial injury in the State of Illinois. Additionally, Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(k)(2) confers personal jurisdiction over Defendants because the claims asserted herein arise under federal copyright law, Defendants would not be subject to jurisdiction in any state's courts of general jurisdiction, and exercising jurisdiction is consistent with the United States Constitution and laws.

INTRODUCTION

3. Plaintiff, Barbara Hollaus, is the owner of the federal copyright registrations that protect the creative content of Plaintiff's illustrations. Hollaus is an illustrator and graphic designer whose style is defined by pastel colors and fine lines. Her work is often described as peaceful, comforting, and minimalistic.

4. This action has been filed by Plaintiff to combat online copyright infringers who trade upon Plaintiff's reputation, goodwill, and valuable copyrights by selling and/or offering for sale products in connection with Plaintiff's illustrations. In addition, the Defendants are selling unauthorized products that are based on and derived from the copyrighted subject matter of Plaintiff's illustrations.

5. Plaintiff is the owner of United States Copyright Registration Nos. VA 2-407-559; VA 2-407-610; VA 2-407-608; and VA 2-407-601 (the "Barbara Hollaus Works") and the registrations are attached hereto as Exhibit 1. Upon information and belief, the copyrights have effective dates that predate the Defendants' acts of copyright infringement.

6. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Barbara Hollaus Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Barbara Hollaus Products.

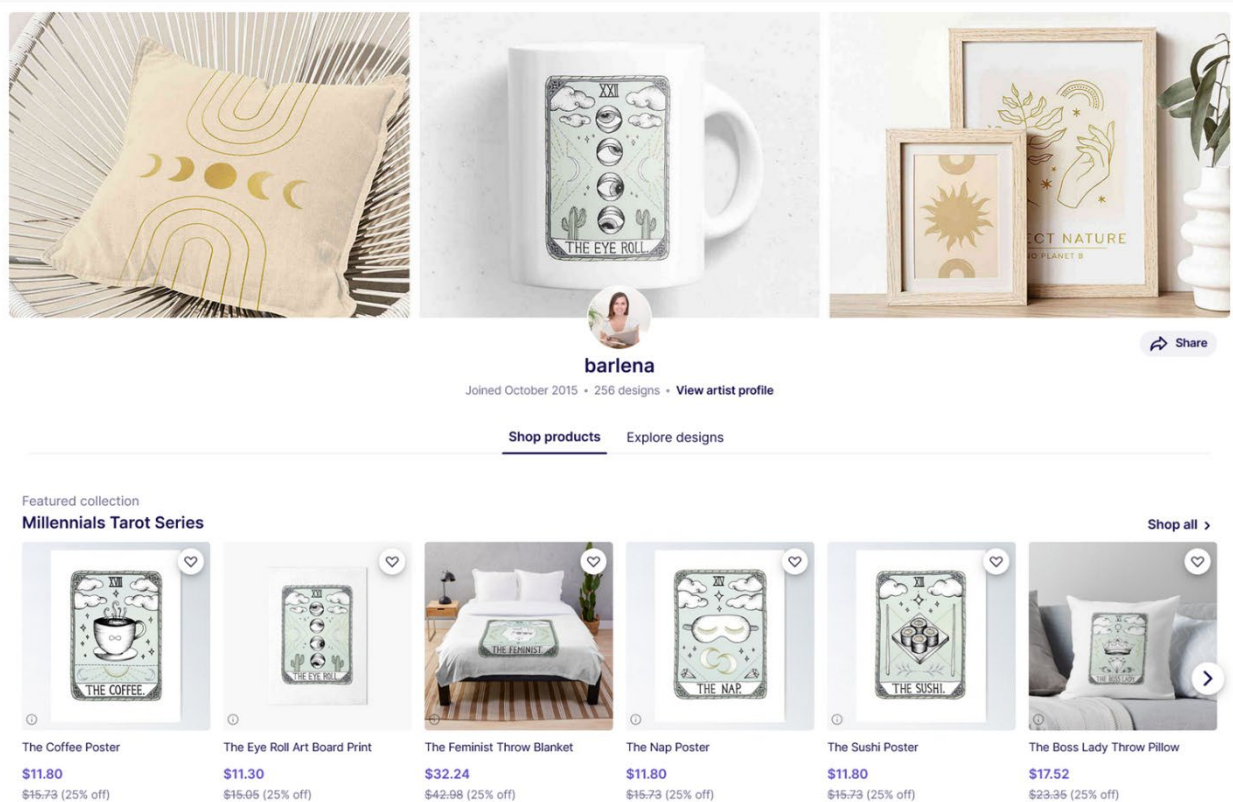

7. The Defendant Internet Stores share unique identifiers, such as design elements and similarities of the unauthorized products offered for sale, establishing a logical relationship between them and suggesting that Defendants' illegal operations arise out of the same transaction, occurrence, or series of transactions or occurrences. Defendants attempt to avoid liability by going to great lengths to conceal both their identities and the full scope and interworking of their illegal operation. Plaintiff is forced to file this action to combat Defendants' piracy of the Barbara Hollaus Works. Plaintiff has been and continues to be irreparably damaged through loss of control over the creative content of the valuable copyrights, reputation, goodwill, the quality, and ability to license as a result of Defendants' actions and seeks injunctive and monetary relief.

THE PLAINTIFF

8. Plaintiff, Barbara Hollaus, is the owner of the Copyright Registrations that protect the creative content of the Barbara Hollaus Works. Hollaus is an illustrator and graphic designer whose style is defined by pastel colors and fine lines. Her work is often described as peaceful, comforting, and minimalistic. Nature is a big source of inspiration for her. She loves to include floral elements in her illustrations, as well as celestial motifs like the sun, moon, and stars. She also likes to incorporate motivational quotes and sayings, because she wants people to feel empowered when they view her pieces. Hollaus has been drawing for as long as she can remember. She studied graphic design in college, including courses on drawing and visual communication. In school, she began experimenting with her hand drawn images in Photoshop. While editing and recoloring, she felt like the possibilities were endless. She loves that as an artist she can recreate whatever comes to mind and express herself through her work. Hollaus's work is available for purchase as prints and on various products including pillows, textiles, stationery, rugs, home décor, and apparel.

9. Hollaus has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Barbara Hollaus Works. As a result, products associated with the Barbara Hollaus Works are recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the trade as products authorized by Hollaus (the "Barbara Hollaus Products").

11. In an effort to illegally profit from the creative content of the Barbara Hollaus Works, Defendants have created numerous Defendant Internet Stores and designed them to appear to be selling authorized Barbara Hollaus Products. Upon information and belief, Defendants facilitate sales by designing the Defendant Internet Stores so that they appear to unknowing consumers to be authorized online retailers, outlet stores, or wholesalers selling genuine Barbara Hollaus Products.

12. Hollaus has invested substantial time, money, and effort in building up and developing consumer awareness, goodwill, and recognition in the Barbara Hollaus Works.

13. The success of the Barbara Hollaus Works is due in large part to Plaintiff's marketing, promotional, and distribution efforts.

14. As a result of Plaintiff's efforts, the quality of the Barbara Hollaus Products, the promotional efforts for Plaintiff's products and designs, press and media coverage, and social media coverage, members of the public have become familiar with the Barbara Hollaus Works and associate them exclusively with Hollaus.

15. Hollaus has made efforts to protect Plaintiff's interests in and to the Barbara Hollaus Works. No one other than Hollaus and her licensees are authorized to manufacture, import, export, advertise, create derivative works, offer for sale, or sell any goods utilizing the Barbara Hollaus Works without the express written permission of Plaintiff.

THE DEFENDANTS AND THE DEFENDANTS' UNLAWFUL CONDUCT

Defendants conduct business throughout the United States, including within Illinois and in this judicial district, through the operation of the fully interactive commercial websites and online marketplaces operating under the Defendant Internet Stores. Each Defendant targets the United States, including Illinois, and has offered to sell and, on information and belief, has sold and continues to sell illegal Barbara Hollaus Products to consumers within the United States, including Illinois and in this judicial district.

COUNT I COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

20. Each Defendant, without the permission or consent of Plaintiff, has and continues to sell online pirated derivative works of the copyrighted Barbara Hollaus Works. Each Defendant has violated Plaintiff's exclusive rights of reproduction and distribution. Each Defendant's actions constitute infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive rights protected under the Copyright Act (17 U.S.C. §101 et seq.).

21. As a result of each Defendant's infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive rights under copyright, Plaintiff is entitled to relief pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §504 and to Plaintiff's attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §505.

22. The conduct of each Defendant is causing and, unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiff great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§502 and 503, Plaintiff is entitled to injunctive relief prohibiting each Defendant from further infringing Plaintiff's copyrights and ordering that each Defendant destroy all unauthorized copies.
